

SHADOW MOUNTAIN COMMUNITY CHURCH

July 29, 2020

Dear Members and Friends of Shadow Mountain,

Believe it or not, we are getting ready for the first weekend of August. So much has changed since I started planning for this month many weeks ago. I am sure that you were not preparing for our businesses and schools and churches to be shut down. And I know I was not expecting to preside over two outdoor services in our parking lot at 7 p.m. But that is where we are, and I am so proud of all of you because instead of worrying about what we are not allowed to do, you have embraced what we can do. And I want to give praise to the Lord God of heaven for some very meaningful and exciting services in our new outdoor amphitheater!

Even though we do not have a choir, our musicians are outperforming themselves. I know for a fact that what we are doing is way more challenging for Tobin and Michael than our normal routine in the Worship Center. But how great our worship and platform music has been.

I also want to give a shout-out to Bryan Snow, Roy Rogers and Trev Holman. They tear down and set up every weekend and with school just around the corner, their jobs will not be getting easier. Thank you guys!

This weekend, we begin a new series of messages, and I will wait until then to give you an overview as we head into August. As you know, I usually take the month of August as a time of vacation. Some of you may think I have been on vacation since the beginning of Covid-19. I will probably miss a couple of weeks this month, but there is so much going on each week that I will stay at home for most of the month.

Finally, we are in the final days of preparation for the opening of our schools. We will be sending our waiver letter this week, and we covet your prayers for all that this involves.
