

Getting Started

1. Describe someone who has mentored you (e.g. hobby, marriage, career, etc.). What did you learn from this person?
2. Conversely, describe someone you have mentored. How did the relationship start? What did you teach this person?

Digging Deeper

1. Read 1 Kings 19:19-20. When have you felt God “calling” (i.e. nudging, guiding, or encouraging) you to do something for Him? What was your response?
2. When this call came, what was your process of “counting the cost” (of following God)? Did you act immediately? Did you think it through?
3. Read Luke 9:62. Along the way, when have you been tempted to “turn back” (e.g. slow down or do something different)?
4. Describe the people who have helped you as you have followed God’s call. What have they done for you?
5. What about successes and failures along the way? When has your journey been frustrating? When has it been enjoyable and exciting?

Bringing it Home

1. How has God’s call felt lately? Are you still excited to serve Him or are you feeling less motivated than in the past?
2. If you are sensing a fresh, new call from God, how does this make you feel? Excited? Confused? Scared? Hopeful?
3. What is your next step of faith to follow God’s call for your life? What mentor can you reach out to in order to help you move forward wisely and with a strong commitment to God’s glory?
