

Getting Started

1. In the past month, what has been a high point (e.g. something desirable and enjoyable that has happened to you)?
2. What about a low point (e.g. something difficult or challenging)?

Digging Deeper

1. Pastor Jeremiah said, "Sometimes God gives us gifts...because He wants to make us happy." How has God done this in your life?
2. Conversely, when have you felt disappointed by God? What was the occasion of the setback (e.g. loss of a relationship, opportunity, or resource)?
3. What about a time when God delivered you from a negative situation (e.g. tough job, financial distress, health challenge, etc.)? What happened?
4. In this week's sermon God's character was shown through gifts, disappointments and deliverances. Which aspect of God's character do you appreciate the most? The least?

Bringing it Home

1. Of the following three seasons, which one are you experiencing right now? A season of 1) delight, 2) disappointment, or 3) deliverance.
2. If you are in a season of delight, how might you enjoy what God has given you?
3. If you are in a season of disappointment, how is this affecting your relationship with God? Are you 1) distancing yourself from Him, or 2) drawing closer to Him?
4. If you are in a season of deliverance, how can you express gratitude for what God has done for you?
