Psalm 107:20 (NKJV) – He sent His word and healed them and delivered them from their destructions.

A Message from Pastor Jeremiah

As the impact of the Coronavirus drags on, we are beginning to see our offerings slightly decline. I want to encourage you to stay faithful in your giving. During these days, we absolutely need everyone on deck as we persevere through this pandemic. Here is the link to the online giving page should you need it.

I promise you, God is still on the throne, and He is doing His work in our hearts and in our church.

I am so thankful for each one of you, and I will see you soon in online church!

Detail: Attendance

The “official” small group season ends June 13. Are you planning on continuing your small group through the summer? Or are you planning to stop meeting until the start of next season? Please email us and let us know your summer plans so that we can administrate your small group accordingly. Once we hear from you, we can turn off the attendance emails or reach out to you for attendance. (Attendance can be a challenge, and we want to make sure to be as accurate as possible.)

Zoom Leader Community \(ZLC\) Highlights

We had a fantastic ZLC experience this week. Thank you all who were able to attend and work through the content of Helping Yourself, and Those You Lead, Toward a Positive Post-Crisis Future with us. If you weren't able to make it, here are a few highlights.

Key Scriptures: Proverbs 29:18a; Philippians 4:8

In order to lead others well, we must first lead ourselves well. In a time of crisis and fear, leaders deal with their fears first before helping others. If we don't deal with our fears first, others will sense that our leadership is fractured, and they may question our authenticity.

Leaders need to surround themselves with safe people who will help them navigate their own crisis-driven-fears. The key word here is “safe.”
